GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS GANDY AND NEVILLE TO WATER TREATMENT

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Rob Gandy of Southport and Myron Neville of Pembroke to the Water Treatment Facility Operators Certification Board.

Gandy is the Southport City Manager. He is a member of the Southport Lions Club and was named Outstanding Local Government Manager Region "0" by the Cape Fear Council of Governments. Gandy received his Bachelor's degree in business administration and his Master's degree in political science from Appalachian State University.

Neville is a water treatment superintendent at the Robeson County Water Department. He is business manager and yearbook editor for the N.C. Waterworks Operators Association and a member of the N.C. Section American Water Works Association. Neville was named Outstanding Operator of the Year by the N.C. Waterworks Operators Association in 1999 and A-Surface Operator of the Year by the N.C. Waterworks Operators Association in 1988. He received his Bachelor's degree in biochemistry from East Carolina University.

The board protects the public investment in water treatment facilities; provides for the classifying of public water treatment facilities; requires the examination of water treatment facility operators and the certification of their competency to supervise the operation of water treatment facilities. The board has eight members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
